

Planificarea financiară a activității în unitățile economice cu profil agricol

Daniela Neonila MARDIROS - Universitatea "Al. I. Cuza" Iași

In that paper the author talk, for the beginning, about firm's financial planning using terms like budgetary financial administration, budgetary system, type of budgets etc. We also talk about the principles and the methods which correspond to budgets elaboration. Another point of view in our paper is the one which looks the connections between budgets.
