

Aspecte privind finanțarea inovativă a cooperativelor agricole din spațiul U.E.

DONOSA D., MORARU R.A., MACOVEI GH., STEFAN G. - USAMV Iasi

The work presents some of the financial instruments of capital funding in establishing and functioning of the agricultural cooperatives within the E.U. and the problems that are occurring in the economical conditions of growing level of competition on the market. These problems are concerning legal, economical and management aspects.
