

The evolution of the main branches of services in the post socialist Romania

POP Cecilia - Universitatea "Petre Andrei" Iasi

After the Revolution from December 1989, Romania has given a stressed priority to the concerns for the cooperation and integration in the west European structures. Nonetheless, it starts the road of this integration with a serious handicap generated by the state of underdevelopment of its sector of services.