

Interdisciplinarite: langues étrangères et disciplines agronomiques

Maria PALICICA, Georgeta RAȚĂ, Laura-Ioana PALICICA - USAMVB Timișoara

In practice, no subject can be taught without relying on previous knowledge from both the subject in question and other related or non-related subjects. Correlating knowledge shared by different subjects and teaching them in an inter-disciplinary approach can result in an increase in efficiency of the education on the whole.
