

ADITIVII ALIMENTARI - ÎNTRE CONSIDERENTE COMERCIALE SI RISCURI NUTRITIONALE FOOD ADDITIVES - COMMERCIAL AND RISKS BETWEEN NUTRITIONAL CONSIDERATIONS

NEGOESCU Narcisa - Universitatea "Petre Andrei" Iasi

The "modern" food of XXIth century based on alimentary products intensely artificialised and with a reduced nutritive value is one of the causes of the depreciation of the general health condition of the population. The alimentary additives are nocives substances although they are permitted by law. Actually it is a legalized poluation of food. The exposure of the noxious effects of Eadditives and their exclusion from the aliments is a civic matter of conscience and a moral condition of those who are interested by the future and health humanity
