

INTEGRAREA EUROPEANĂ ȘI VIITORUL AGRICULTURII ROMÂNEȘTI EUROPEAN INTEGRATION AND THE FUTURE OF ROMANIAN AGRICULTURE

MURSA G. - Universitatea "Al. I. Cuza" Iași

The aim of this paper is to analyse a traditional branch of Romanian economy – agriculture - because the european integration rouse a lot of problems. Now, it is certain that this sector is not prepared to compete with the strong economies of western countries. In the long run, its difficulties may be surpassed using new methods of management and encouraging foreign investments. All romanian agriculture need to be adjusted to the European union system. Then, we can hope to increase the global efficiency of this domain.
