

SUBVENȚIILE ÎN AGRICULTURĂ SUBSIDIES IN AGRICULTURE

MURSA G. - F.E.A.A. Universitatea "Al. I. Cuza" Iași

The goal of the economic policy is to obtain a good allocation of scarce resources. Economic efficiency needs to avoid the waste of these resources. When government subsidizes the agricultural activities, global efficiency is falling down. In fact, the fight for state funds is a fight for resource between egotist people who try to obtain a better welfare.
