

The structure, abundance and dynamics of the coleoptere species from the vineyards in the husi viticultural ecosystem, Vaslui department

M. TALMACIU, Nela TALMACIU - USAMV Iasi

There were collected a total number of 224 specimens belonging to a number of 14 species. The species that had the largest number of collected specimens were: Pseudophonus rufipes Deg. with 79 specimens, Pseudophonus griseus Panz. with 37 specimens, Harpalus distinguendus Duft. with 34 specimens and Carabus besseri Fischer with 29 specimens. The species collected belonging to the next family: Carabidae, Tenebrionidae, Dermestidae, Coccinelidae. The Carabidae Family to had the largest number of collected specimens (11), the others familys being represented by one species only.