

Aspecte privind lucrările de desecare–drenaj din incintele indiguite din Lunca Dunării

Camelia SLAVE - USAMV București
Carmen VASILICA - Administrația Națională a Îmbunătățirilor Funciare București

This article presents some aspects concerning water source in excess from drainage systems located in Danube floodplain. Thus, researches were focused on the water supply from rainfall over drainage area; water supply from rainfall over neighbouring basin; supply from the underground water table; infiltrations through the dyke body and under the dyke body of the Danube River and also existence in area of the evacuated flow from arrangements.