

Measuring instruments of the agricultural support

Dan DONOSA - USAMV Iași

The paper work presents the meaning of the agricultural support, the instruments to express the support and how farm support is measured. Thus, through these instruments we can answer to a couple of question concerning the agricultural reform, how much does support increase farm incomes, and the factors that are causing the gap between the domestic and world prices.