

Analiza ofertei serviciilor sanitare din Romania

Gh. PETRESCU, D. BOLDUREANU, Gabriela MARINESCU - Universitatea de Medicină și
Farmacie "Gr. T. Popa" Iași

The paper analyzes the latest evolution of health indicators and the Romanian health system evolution. The main conclusions are: the most hospitals are in state property and a small groups in private property; the polyclinics are in private property; the privatization actions of the pharmacies are intensified in the last years; the medical clinics are in public property, but their spaces was conceded to the family physicians; the surgeries, the medical labs and the dental technique labs are in private property with an high standard of services.