Language requirements for admission	Basic knowledge of Italian is recommended (level A2 at least); however, official certification is not mandatory. Università del Molise expects Erasmus incoming students to have basic knowledge of English as vehicular language.
Please note: detailed information regarding the application procedure and the Learning Agreement submission will be delivered directly to nominated students.
Available Teaching Activities / Course Catalogue
The lists of the teaching activities available at each Department can be accessed on-line through the Università del Molise's teaching activities search engine, following these instructions: 1) Switch to English clicking on the "Menu" button in the upper right corner of the page; 2) Select the academic year of the planned mobility in the field "Academic Year" 3) in the field "Faculties" select the Department of interest ("Agricoltura Ambiente Alimenti" = Dept of Agriculture; "Bioscienze e Territorio" = Dept. of Biosciences; "Economia" = Dept. of Economics; "Giuridico" = Dept. of Law; "Medicina e di scienze della salute" = Dept. of Medicine; "Scienze umanistiche sociali e delle formazioni" = Dept. of Humanities and Social Sciences); 4) in the field "Lingua della didattica" select "Inglese", should you need to restrict your search to the teaching activities delivered in English under each Department; 5) press the "Search" button to see the results of your search.
Accommodation
We strongly recommend to perspective Erasmus students to look for accommodation outside the university's structures. To this aim we recommend to get in touch with the Erasmus Student Network local section ESN Unimol, which is in charge of providing help and support to Erasmus students looking for accommodations. ESN Unimol contact details are available here: https://www.unimol.it/english/services-2/students-association/
Credits
1 Italian university credit (CFU) = 1 credit in the European Credit Transfer Accumulation System (ECTS)
