

Position Title - MS Graduate Research Assistant

Description

The University of Arkansas Department is seeking a talented and highly motivated student to fill a Master's level Graduate Research Assistantship focused on strawberry fertility optimization and sustainable soil management in horticultural systems. Graduate work will focus on applied research in field and high tunnel production systems. Assistantship includes a stipend and tuition waiver.

Candidates should have strong background and interest in horticulture. For further information contact Dr. Amanda McWhirt, email: amcwhirt@uaex.edu; Phone – 501-671-2229.

Information on graduate studies at the University of Arkansas, Department of Horticulture is available at <http://horticulture.uark.edu/graduate-students/graduate-students.php>.

Requirements

Candidates should have strong background and interest in horticulture. B.S. in Horticulture or closely related field.

Job Information

- Location: Fayetteville, Arkansas, United States
- Company Name: University of Arkansas
- Job Function: Fruit & Vegetable
- Entry Level: Yes
- Job Type: Part-Time
- Job Duration: 1-2 Years
- Min Education: BA/BS/Undergraduate
- Min Experience: None
- Required Travel: 0-10%
- Salary: $14,000.00 (Yearly Salary)